Letter from the Head

Dear Lick-Wilmerding Students:

I congratulate each of you on completing another year of study and growth, while simultaneously helping to make Lick-Wilmerding such a wonderfully dynamic educational institution. Each day as I orient myself to the various activities on the calendar, I am amazed by the various goings on at the school. A typical day often involves club meetings, discussions in the center, academic presentations and debates, screenings of student films, sporting events after school, and tutoring other students here at the school. This flurry of activity is a reflection of the passions and interests you bring to school each day.

Your commitment to each other and to the school also helps the institution live its mission each day. By helping others in need and through your service Lick-Wilmerding students are healing practitioners as we seek ways to create a more just and healthy world. I thank you for your service to the school and to the world. Your work gives me hope that that the skills you learn at LWHS will translate into concrete action in the future for the benefit of this precious planet.

Lastly, I thank Mr. King and the editors of the yearbook for their hard work producing this year's edition of The Tiger. Their dedication is yet another example of the spirit of service and care that permeates the school. I wish you each a peaceful and restful summer. Seniors, I thank you for your leadership of the school this year and wish you all the best as you head off to your next adventures. My hope for you is that you continue to love to learn, and that you are confident in your own abilities. Please keep in touch and visit often.

Kind regards,

Eric Temple
Head of School

Dedication

Whose face is the first face you see after you're greeted by Mr. Temple every morning at Lick? If you answered with "Ms. Harris," you're absolutely correct! Ms. Harris is also a part of the first "space" at Lick when you enter the school; the foyer.

A bundle of joy, kindness, and love, Ms. Harris is quite possibly one of the greatest receptionists a school could have. From tracking the students' absences to making sure our school is safe, Ms. Harris is always extremely helpful and hard working. And whether you have a paper cut and need a band-aid or have a head-ache and need some medication, Ms. Harris also serves as Lick's very own school nurse.

And have you tried some of her delicious baked goods? Ms. Harris' red velvet cake, chocolate chip cookies, and carrot cake are simply to die for. Given Ms. Harris' humble personality and nature, she will always be modest about her talented baking skills; however, once you take a bite into one of her baked desserts, you'll understand why Lick students who fund raise ask Ms. Harris to donate some of her baked treats.

To plainly put it, Ms. Harris is an incredible person and her time and work at Lick will never be forgotten or taken for granted. Ms. Harris has helped the Lick community and the school itself in unimaginable ways. And after her many years of diligence and commitment to Lick, Ms. Harris has decided that 2013 will be her final year working at Lick. On behalf of the school, the yearbook editorial staff would like to dedicate the 2012-2013 yearbook to Ms. Barbara Harris.

Even a yearbook dedication is not enough to express our undying gratitude for Ms. Harris. Thank you for everything!

Sincerely,
Stephanie Chung, Caroline Doyle, & Oscar King
The Yearbook Editors & Advisor

In Memoriam
Sheila Gadsden

"The Lick-Wilmerding community was lucky to have had Sheila Gadsden as an active parent, trustee and volunteer. Her infectious laughter and twinkling eyes were present in abundance during her seven years at the school. She was passionate about her work on the Head Search committee, the mission statement, the concept of a private school with a public purpose, the importance of an excellent academic program and giving back to her communities. In each of these efforts, hers was a steadying, and quiet but forceful voice on the board. She was mother to Lick-Wilmerding students Erica Crew '13 and Simone Crew '09.

Sheila was an excellent listener with strongly held opinions of her own. She was extremely perceptive about people and situations and very analytical about the issues. Her spirit was evident in the way she handled her diagnosis and treatment – steadfast, creative, positive and open to new ideas.

Her southern graciousness and wonderful sense of humor will be missed by all of us."

The Foyer and Patio:
Special Events

The foyer is the hub of student activity. Everyone passes through it every day, and has to look at the artwork hanging on the walls and carefully placed in the display case, the student-made trophy cabinet that so lavishly displays our athletic success, students at tables selling baked goods for good causes, and the screen that displays all of our most important announcements and each day's schedule. Although it's often overlooked, it's important to stop and appreciate the foyer for all it holds and the importance that it carries for the school. On nice days, the patio holds the same functions. TGIFs, which comprise only a few of the many popular events that StuCo coordinates, also take place on the patio. We're able to enjoy all of these things and more in this two undervalued spaces of the Lick-Wilmerding campus.

T.G.I.F.

Each quarter, the student representatives from one class organize a "T.G.I.F." event to celebrate the work done by the students and provide an outlet to have fun. T.G.I.F.s this year have brought us a bouncy house obstacle course, delicious food, and fun contests.

This year, the Lick community celebrated Valentine's Day with a marriage booth hosted by GSA, along with a Free the Children Krispy Kreme Sale and a Peer Connect event! And of course lots of sweets, treats, and love!

Lunar New Year: The Year of the Snake

The Gym: Sports, Dances, etc.

Its walls are covered with the names of past students known for their athletic excellence at Lick-Wilmerding. It's often full of the loud sound of students cheering on their classmates in games ranging from badminton to basketball, and may be known to some simply as the place where they have to take their finals. On some nights, it is filled with the sound and sweat of students, eager to participate in one-step-up-from-a-middle-school-dance mania. This space is the Bothin Memorial Hall, a.k.a. "The Gym." Every student has at least one memorable experience happen in the gym. Although not all of our dances are located here, they all take root from this space. We have elected to represent all of them from this perspective.

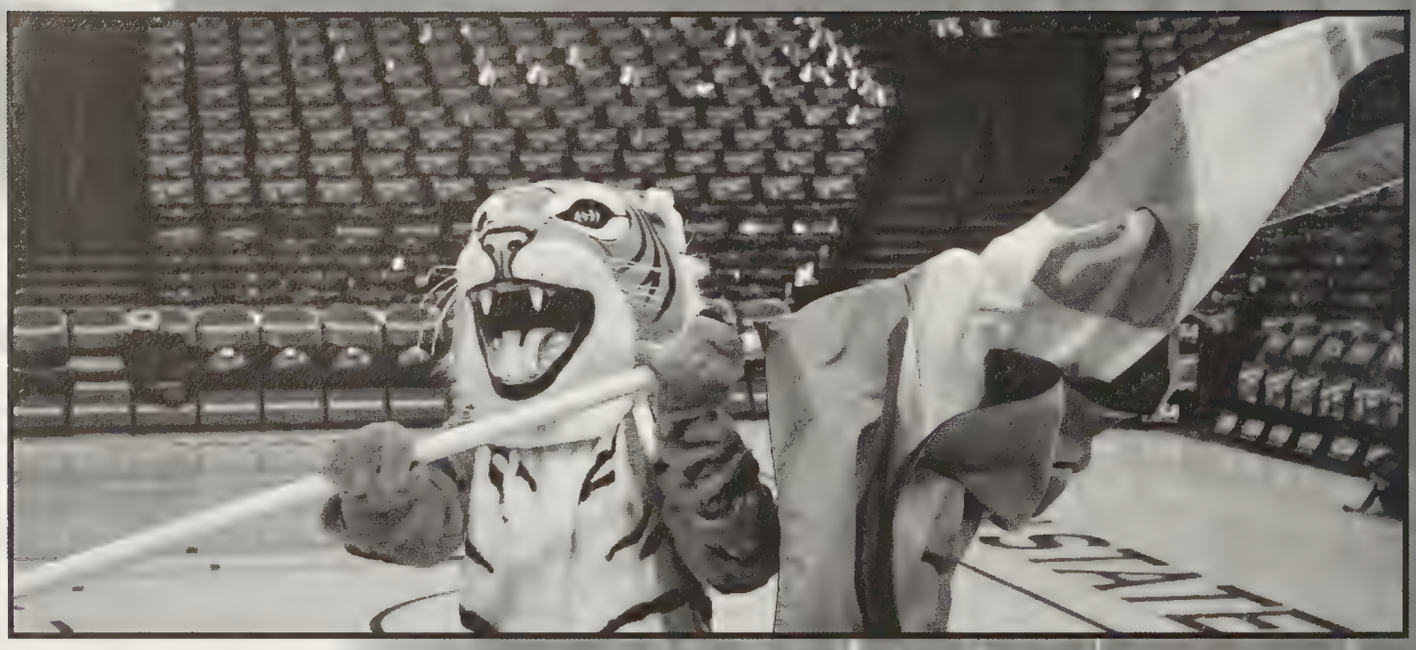
Athletics



"What a fantastic year it has been for Lick-Wilmerding Athletics for the Year 2012-13.

We got off to a great start in the fall season with girls' volleyball, girls' tennis, boys' soccer and cross country. This was the year for our cross country teams as Coach Jeff Gardiner led our varsity boys' to their first league championship in 20 years, knocking off University. The girls' cross country team finished third in the State. This was the highest finish that we have ever had in our school history.

We then moved on to the winter sports with boys' and girls' basketball and boys' and girls' wrestling. Our girls' basketball team had one of their more successful years ever, winning fifteen games during the season. Who can forget all of those nail-biting victories won by 1 point this year? The varsity boys went all the way to the BCL West Finals, losing in the last minute. Who can forget that stretch of six games in a row, where they beat everyone in their league by at least 16 points? The wrestling team hosted the BCL West Finals at Lick-Wilmerding for the first time in school history. We will never forget all of those exciting matches, including all of the wrestlers who came in first place for Lick-Wilmerding.

The spring season looks like another great year with over 250 boys and girls participating in over 10 sports for Lick-Wilmerding. We look forward to all of the teams doing well in the BCL Playoffs, NCS Playoffs and State Playoffs in May. I know that all of our boys and girls really appreciated all of the fan support that they received at all of the games this year. "Once a Tiger, Always a Tiger." One of the things that went really well this year were all of the "Spirit Days," where all of our students came out to support our teams with great fan support along with some great food.

To all of our student-athletes that went out there this year to represent our school, remember:

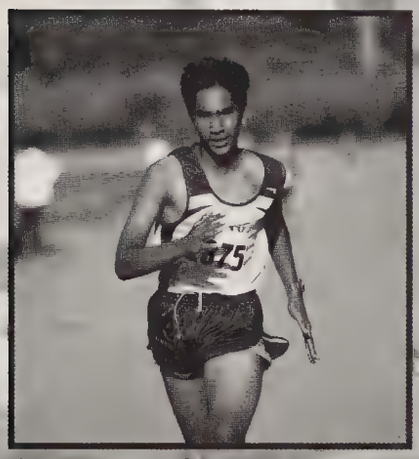
-Any day that we can put that LW jersey on and put our foot in the circle is a great day!

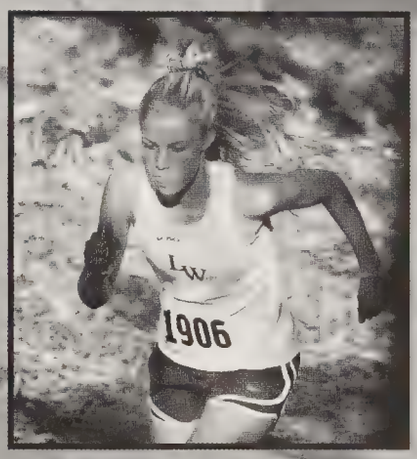
-Good things always happen when we touch the green dot.

-Whenever our backs are to the wall, always remember, Champions Find a Way!'

- Coach Eliot Smith

Cross Country





Under the tutelage of Boys' Head Coach Jeff Gardner, Girls' Head Coach Ashley Relf, and Assistant Coach Alex Wu, the team became the fastest—and greatest— in all of Lick history. The boys had an undefeated season, finally breaking University's 18 year win streak at the BCL Championships. The girls would fare similarly well, nearly dethroning University in their races and placing 2nd in the BCL Championships. At the NCS Championship, the boys finished 4th and the girls finished 2nd. For the first time in a decade, both the girls and boys teams went to the State Championships, where boys took 11th place and girls took 3rd in the highest finish of any Lick team ever.

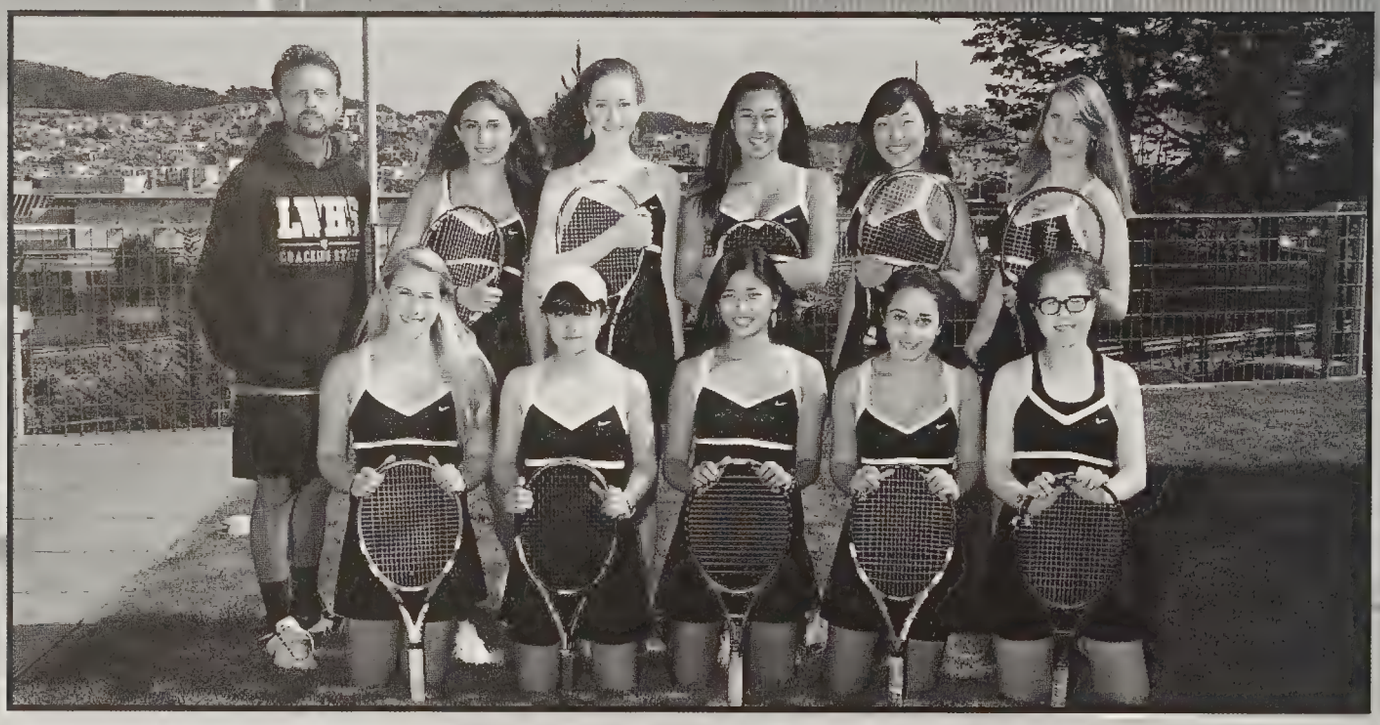
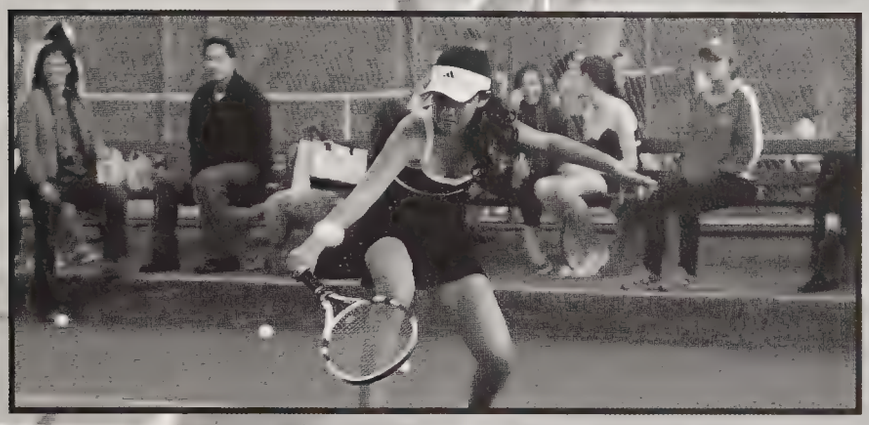
Girls' Tennis



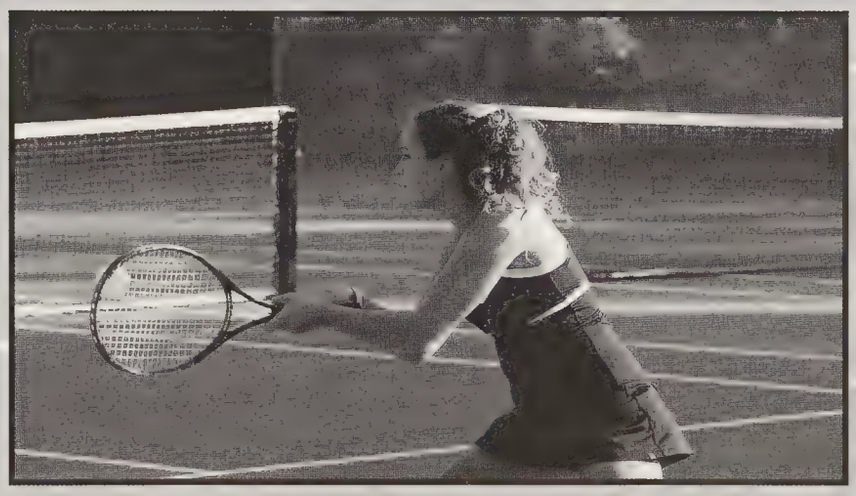
Girls' Varsity Tennis

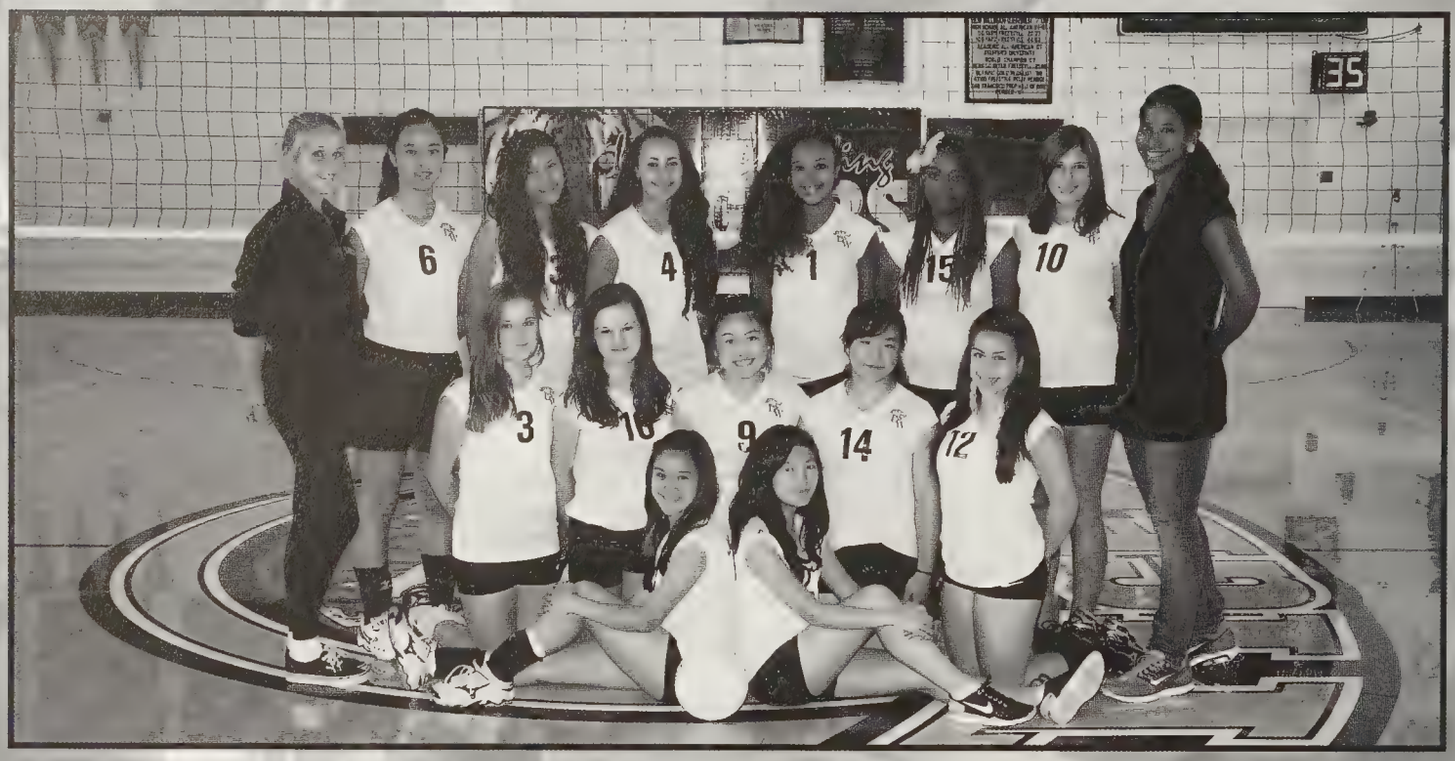
Girls' Junior Varsity Tennis

This year, both the Girls' Junior Varsity and Varsity Tennis teams were endowed with many new talented athletes, along with a new Junior Varsity coach, Nicolas Madrigal-Yankowski '09. Additionally, returning Varsity coach William Jepsen and senior co-captains, Leila Roberts and Stephanie Chung, worked together to help the Varsity team finish off their season strong with seven league wins and three non-league wins. As for the Junior Varsity team, they also had a great season with two league wins and one non-league win. All in all, both Varsity and Junior Varsity showed incredible teamwork and school spirit.

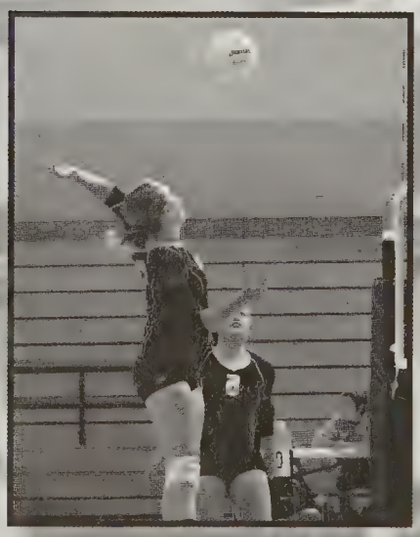


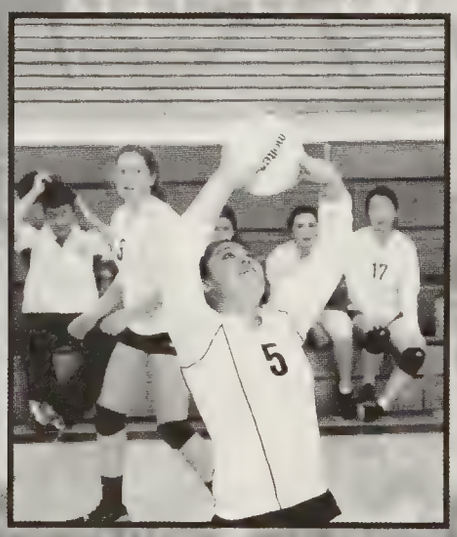
"Our team faced unique challenges this season, but by our last match, we really came together. I am so proud of what we accomplished, especially as we moved through the playoffs. We always supported each other, and I can't wait to come out as a stronger and better team next year!"
- Glenna Roberts '14

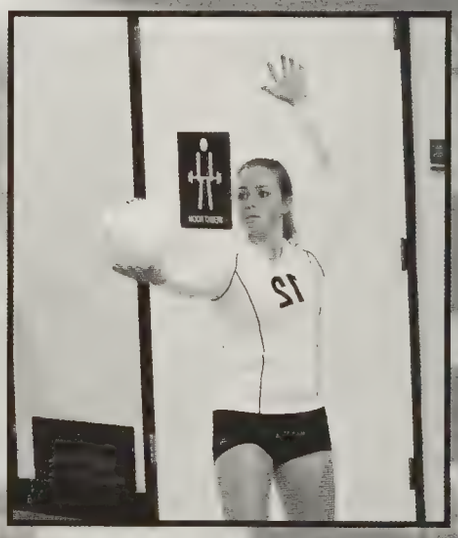


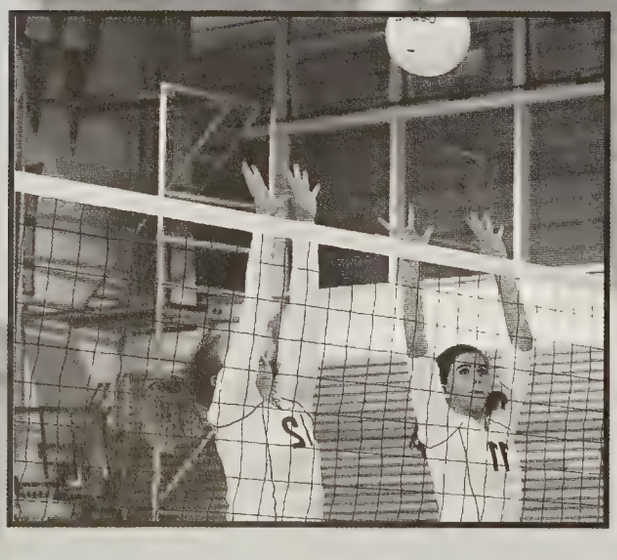


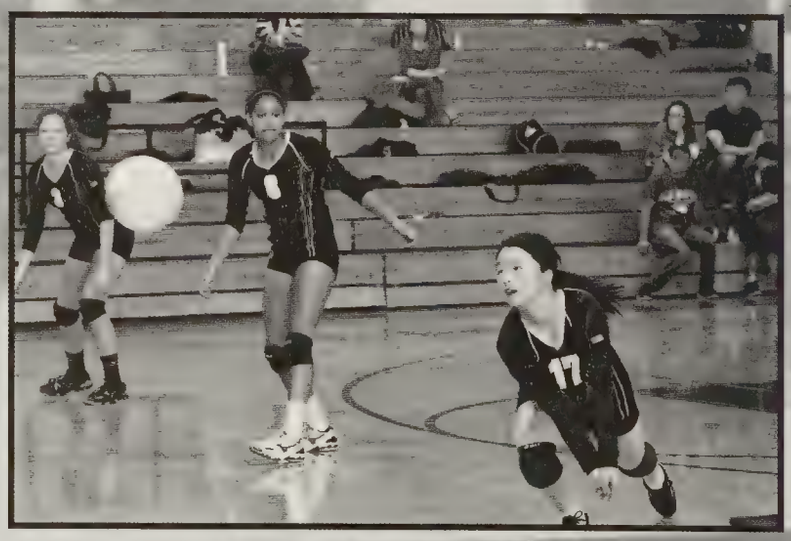
Girls' Junior Varsity Volleyball











Girls' Volleyball

Girls' Varsity Volleyball

The girls' varsity volleyball team, led by senior captains Annie Wilson, Stacey Cheong and Chantelle Schultz, faced a lot of adversity this year. With four freshmen, four sophomores, three juniors, and three seniors the team varied in age levels. The team worked hard and fought strong to improve their own skills to contribute to the team's success. One highlight from the season is when the team rematched International after losing in three games the previous match to beat them in four games the second time around (15-25, 25-21, 25-14, 25-15).

Boys' Soccer

Boys' Varsity Soccer

Boys' Junior Varsity Soccer

"This may be characterized as the youngest boys varsity soccer team in Lick's history. With eight freshmen and four sophomores, there were unsurprising growing pains. Still, under the guidance of Coaches Gavin Birmingham, Sarah Prensky-Pomeranz, and Ian Schoen, the team has showcased a very skillful game while successfully qualifying for BCL West and NCS playoffs despite some tough losses to International and University in league play. The future of Lick soccer is blindingly bright–the rest of the league will need some polarized shades."

- Daniel Beamer Wong '13

"Varsity Soccer 2012: A young squad of men that fought hard."

Boys' Frosh Soph Soccer

It was another exceptional year for the Varsity Tiger Basketball Team in 2012-2013, beating every single team in their BCL West League during the season and making a second consecutive trip to the league finals at legendary Kezar Pavilion. After starting the league season with zero wins and three losses, the tigers battled back to win 6 of their 7 seven, including huge home victories in the affectionately dubbed "Rage Cage" over rivals Urban, Stuart Hall, and University. This year's iteration of the Tigers featured three senior captains and stars: Rauch, Schneider, and Bergland. Their presence in the program was felt as much in the highlight reel of dunks, blocks, and three pointers as it was in their leadership and passion off the court. They exemplified the trademark ideals Head Coach Eliot Smith tries to instill in all his players. The team was rounded out by contributions from players in all grades, and Lick has a tremendous future to look forward to around starting guards David Allen and Kaneem Thornton, as well the growth of a tremendously talented freshman class. Cheers to the team and to the fans that came out religiously to support one of the best teams in school history!

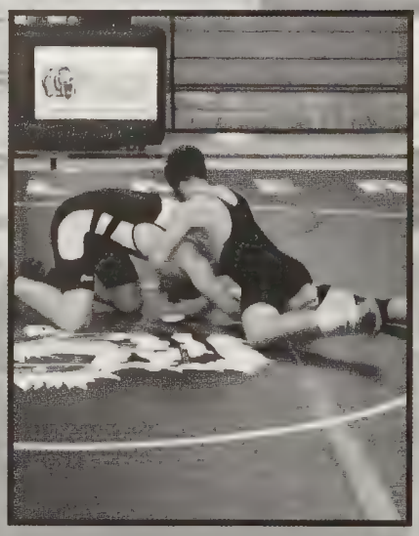
Girls' Basketball

Led by seniors Grace Brownrigg, Christina Gee, and Erica Crew and taking advantage of a balanced roster with major contributions from players in every grade level, the varsity girls proved to be stars in 2012-13. Posting the best record yet in head coach Daniel Tesfai's three-year reign, the Tigers earned a berth to the NCS playoffs for the first time since 2010. They also won their brackets in both the Lick and Mustang Classic Tournaments and finished with 15 victories against 12 defeats. For the year, team MVP Aki Shurelds led all scorers with Tiger Heart award winner Julia Thompson following close on her heels. This dynamic duo led a swarming Tiger defense as well, with Thompson edging Shurelds for the team lead in steals. Crew led the team in rebounds and blocked shots while Brownrigg earned the Coach's Award for her fierce all around play. Fiery Toby Harris inspired her teammates with her relentlessness all over the court. Sabrina Larsen's play earned her well-deserved Most Improved Player honor. As a team, they supported, encouraged, and cheered one another on, and were able to beat rival University for the first time in five years.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

Wrestling



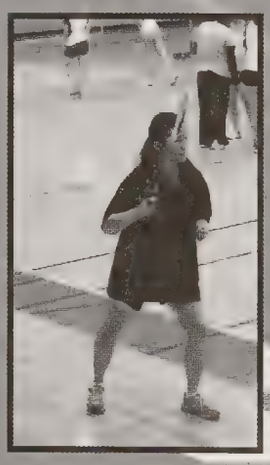
"Wrestling has been a life-changing experience for many of the members on the team. It started out as a lonely club team, and has become a full-fledged Lick-Wilmerding sport with 6 varsity wrestlers placing in the league, not to mention making history this year with multiple wrestlers claiming victories at NCS. Wrestling is beginning to make it mark as true sport."

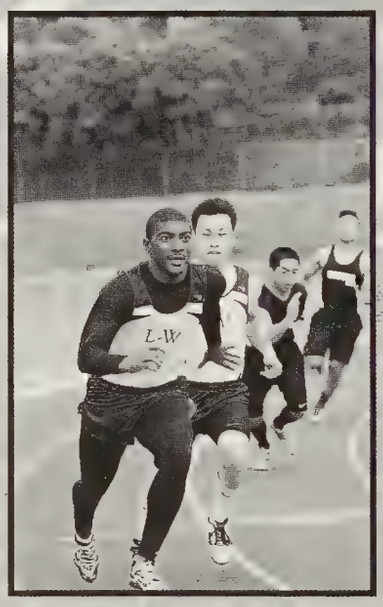
-Michael Galathe '13

BADMINTON

"Powered by senior captains Sydney King, Kiran Misra Siebel, and Paul Lassen, and led by Coaches Eliot Smith and Ronald Yee, the Lick Badminton is one of the most stimulating sports we had this year. The speed of badminton is matched by no other sport. We conquered it through both strength and finesse. With huge improvements shown from the players, this year we looked to take the BCL championships by storm and run head first to NCS."

-Whitney Tse '14





"Lick's Track and Field team is so good, they make me look slow"
- A. Cheetah

Track & Field

The ultimate test of raw strength, skill, and endurance, Track and Field is the fire in which athletes of unusual valor and determination are forged. Head Coach Jeffrey Gardiner and a team of veteran assistant coaches inspired Trackstars to set PRs, score points, and shatter records.

In their first league meet of the year, the men's team fought bitterly to overcome a 50 point deficit in the jumps, winning the meet 174 to 171 against Stuart Hall. The women's team continued to completely dominate the league, as they won the first league meet with 208 points, almost outscoring the next three teams combined.

"Under the leadership of Coach Gavin for a second year, the Varsity Girls Soccer team is ready to take on the league. With the addition of International in the place of Drew, the competition will be tougher but we hope to at least get to the championship and compete in NCS! This year, we also have Daniel Wong on our coaching staff, who functions as both assistant coach and goal-keeper coach."

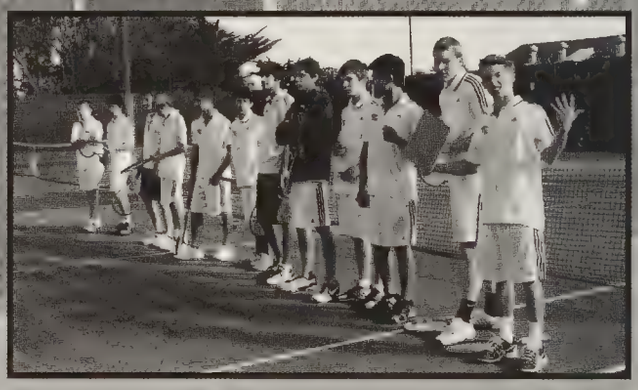
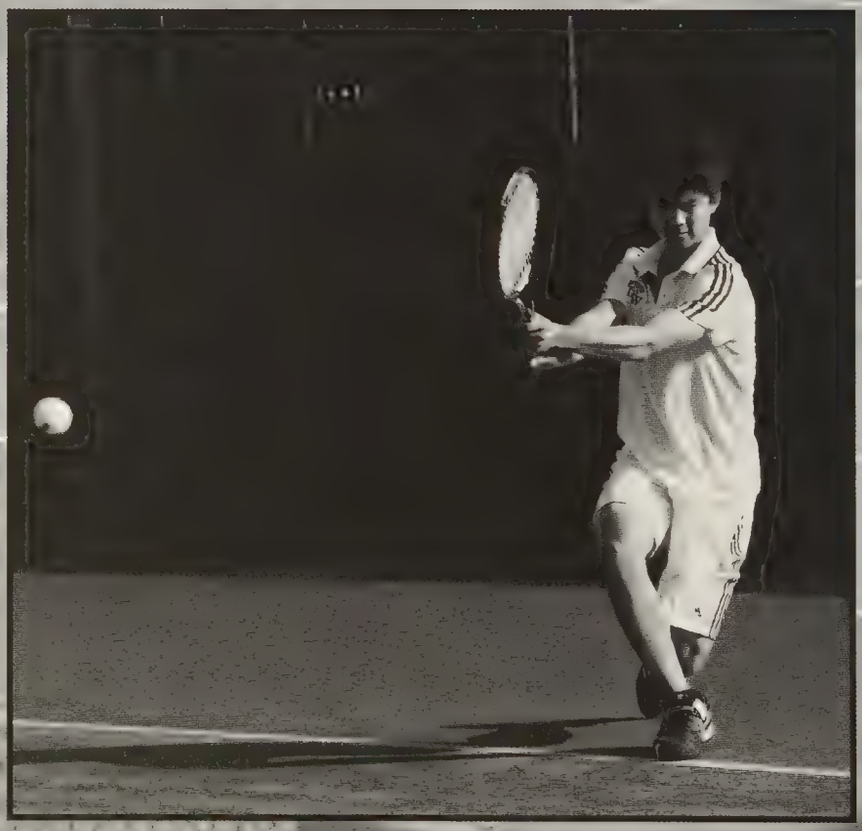
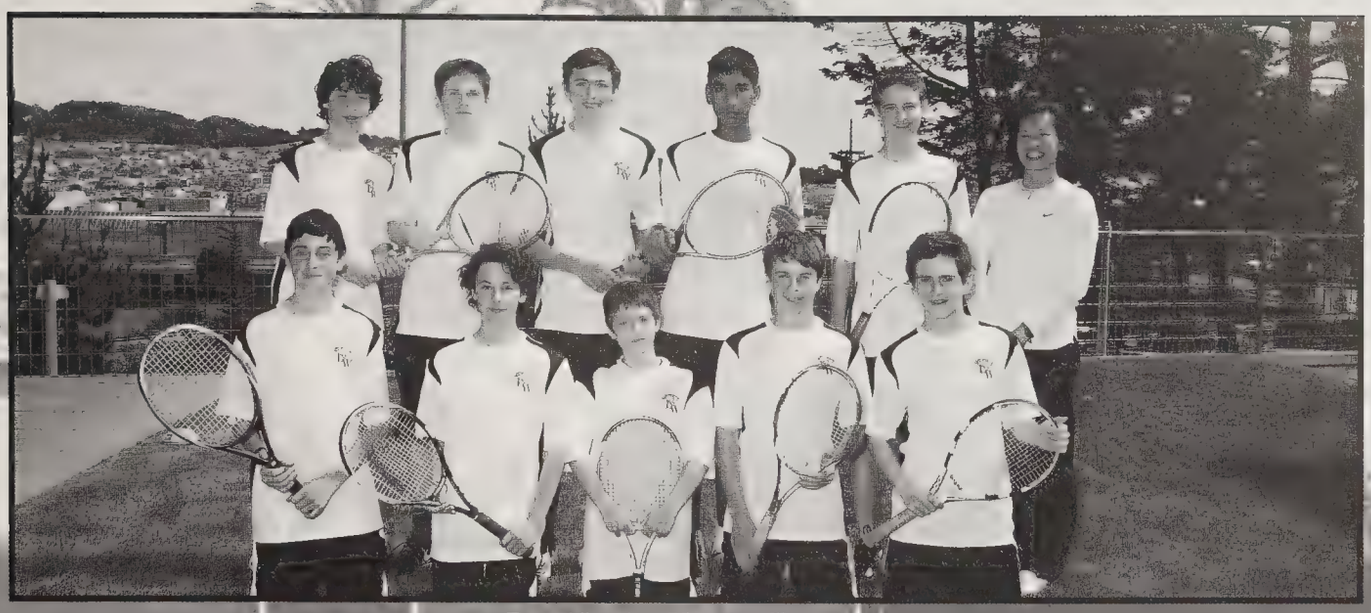
Boys' Tennis

Lick-Wilmerding Tennis has entered its peak. Coach Michael Axtell returns for his fourth season at the helm of the rising program, and there is a buzz around this team not present in previous years. Led by tri-captains Bryson Lee, Sam Ozer-Staton, and Reed Smith, the Tennis Tigers are right in the thick of it gunning for their first league title in school history (well, at least that we know of). Lee, a junior, is already one of the most successful players in Lick history, and arguably the best player in the BCL-West league this year. He is joined in the singles lineup by rising star Jacob Shaw, just a freshman and already a hotshot both on the court and off it. Rounding out the top spots on the team are senior leaders David Scanlan, Ozer-Staton, and Smith. Rivals (and perennial winners) University and Marin Academy better watch out when they enter the seemingly unassuming "Tiger Cage": the cold, foggy courts on Ocean Ave. There's a new group of champs on the block.



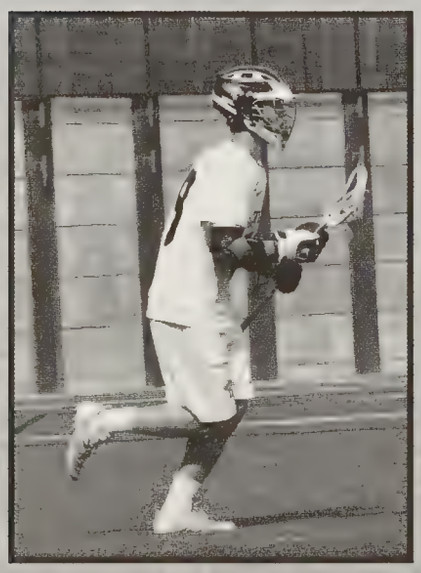


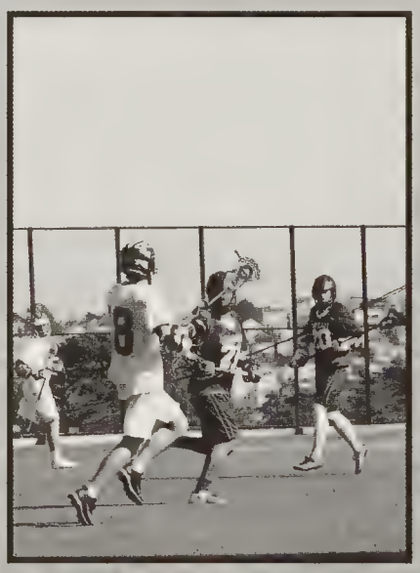


Boys' Junior Varsity Tennis

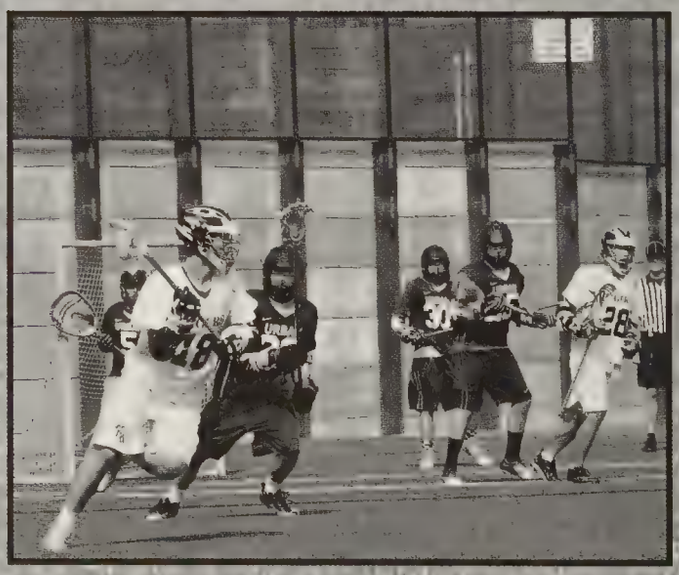
Boys' Varsity Tennis

Boys' Varsity Lacrosse





"This year, the men's lacrosse team is led by a strong group of 10 seniors and new Head Coach Scott Russell. Complemented by a promising core of younger players, senior captains Ryan Quinn, Jeffrey Allen, Egon Conway, and Jackson Barnett all count this as one of the most exciting seasons in recent memory. After getting out to a 5-3 start in the first half of the season, the team is looking forward to improving on last year's league results and making a deep run into the BCL playoffs."
-Ryan Quinn '13



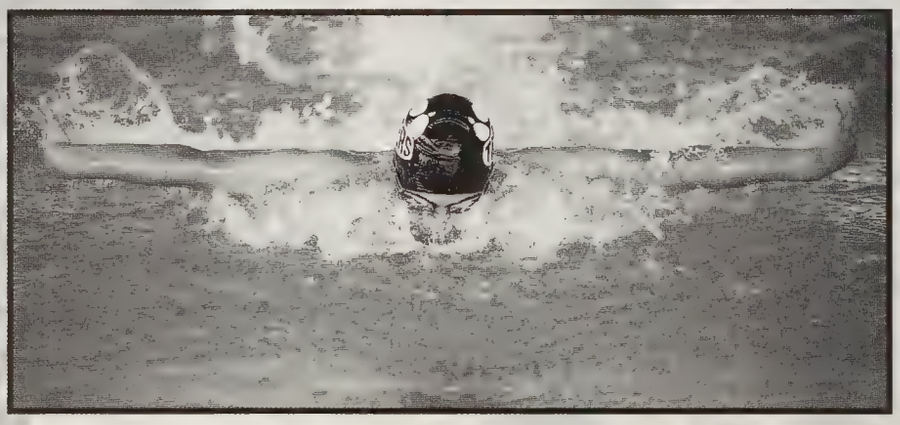
Lacrosse

The women of the Lick-Wilmerding lacrosse team are known for their courage by trying a sport they have never played, and also rocking flattering and flashy theme attires on game days. Some students call the team "most creative" and "bold," proving the girls lacrosse team without a doubt has some of the best spirit in the school. This year serves as one of the most important thus far because of "the Legacies." Lacrosse captains Caroline Doyle, Maria Dubon and Christina Gee along with seniors Miranda Nguyen, Lydia Moog, Rose Paxton and Kira Saks are the remaining players left of the very first girls' lacrosse team at Lick As players who had never even picked up a lacrosse stick, these seven girls have each made enormous contributions with players leading the team in scoring, assists, ground balls, clears, and saves. Despite the legacies leaving, the remainder of the team looks promising for future years to come. This year served as a new record for the number of girls with 28 on the roster.

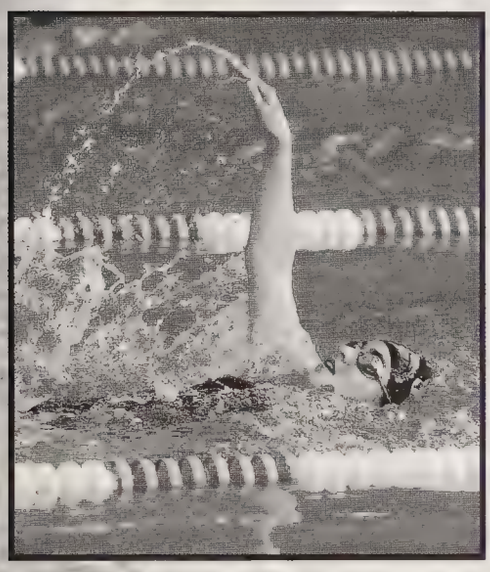
Girls' Varsity Lacrosse

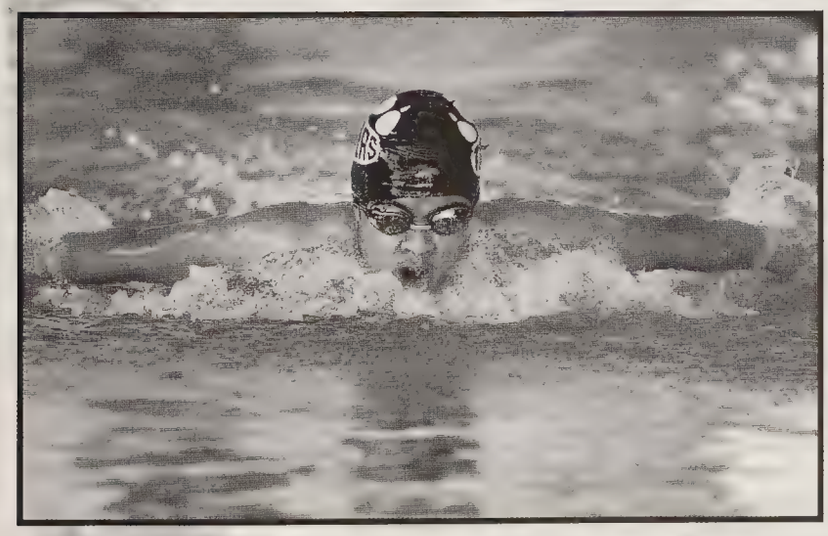
Every year, when faced with the prospect of thousands of yards of swimming and freezing cold water, we end up asking ourselves: why swim? We swim because of our great coaches: Giles Thompson, the British bulldog, J.D. Ellingson, the hipster fifth grade teacher, and Marcus Peschard, the latest addition to the coaching staff. We swim because there's nothing like the sense of accomplishment that comes after completing each grueling workout. But more than anything else, we swim because the team is unlike any other at Lick. After all, where else would you find a group of athletes with "Lick" on their butts, chlorine in their hair, who love the double-double as much as the double-0.

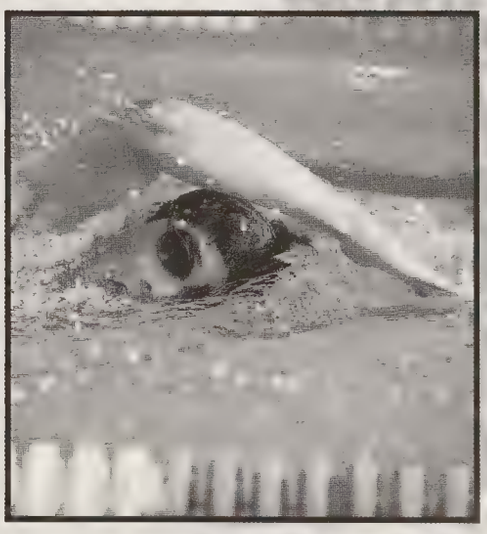
- Sean Mock '13 and Jennifer Yang-Wong '13



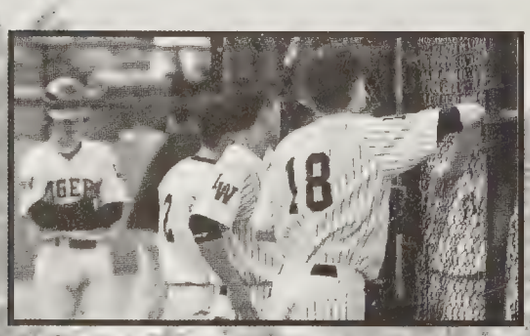
SWIMMING







Baseball



"This year, your Lick-Wilmerding Tigers look to continue their tradition of excellence. Led by captains Ben Jenkins ('13), Jack Manolius ('14), Jack Gorlin ('14), and Frankie Lewis ('15), the Tigers are a very young team with a huge amount of potential. With Ben being the only senior, the Tigers are buoyed by a strong freshman group that looks to carry the team on to future championships. As a very deep team this year, the Tigers will contend for another league championship, and hope to bring back a BCL Varsity Baseball trophy that has traditionally been Lick's."

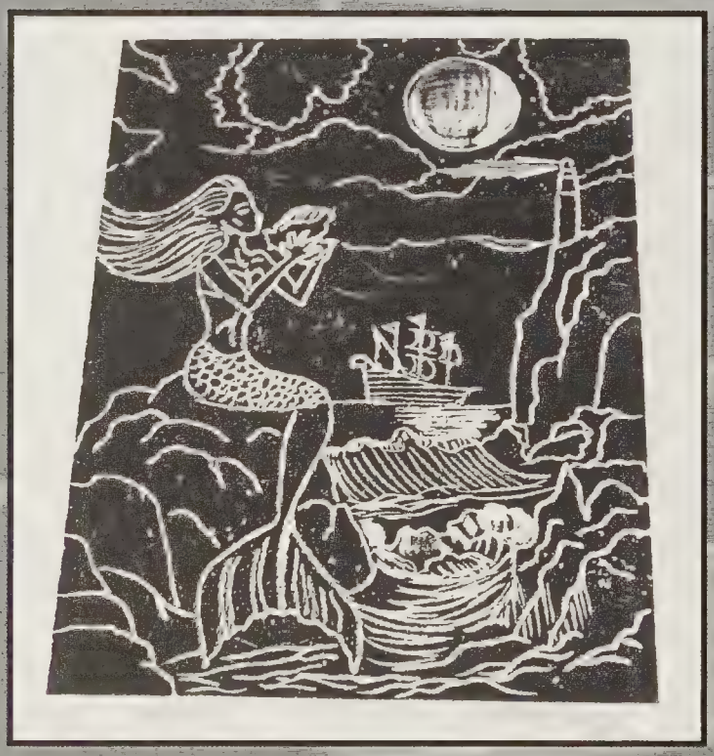
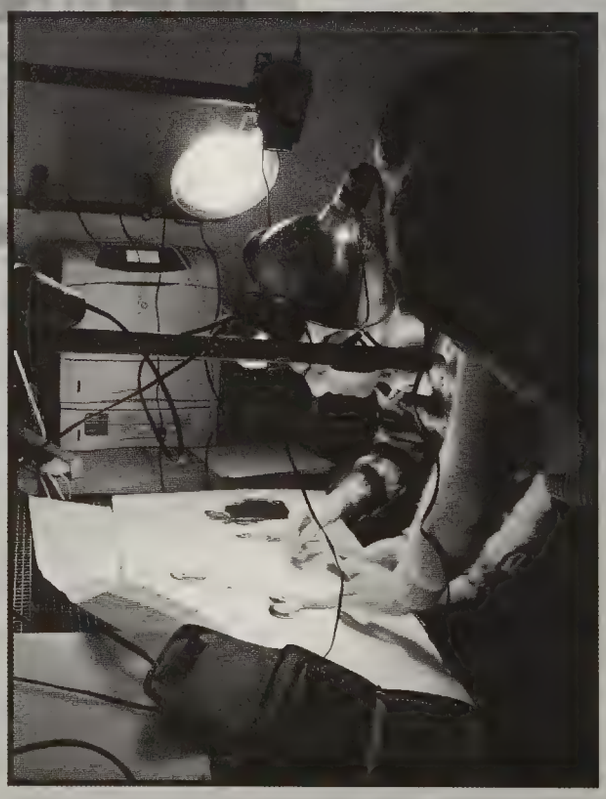
The Pit: Technical Arts

Unlike many structures on campus, The Pit's name actually perfectly suits its character. Home to sweat and unusual smells, The Pit (officially called The Al Adams Center for Technology and Design) has seen a multitude of interesting student works this year. From building award-winning sumo robots in electronics, to crafting wearable accessories in Jewelry, Lick students have been busy working their hands in addition to their heads and hearts.

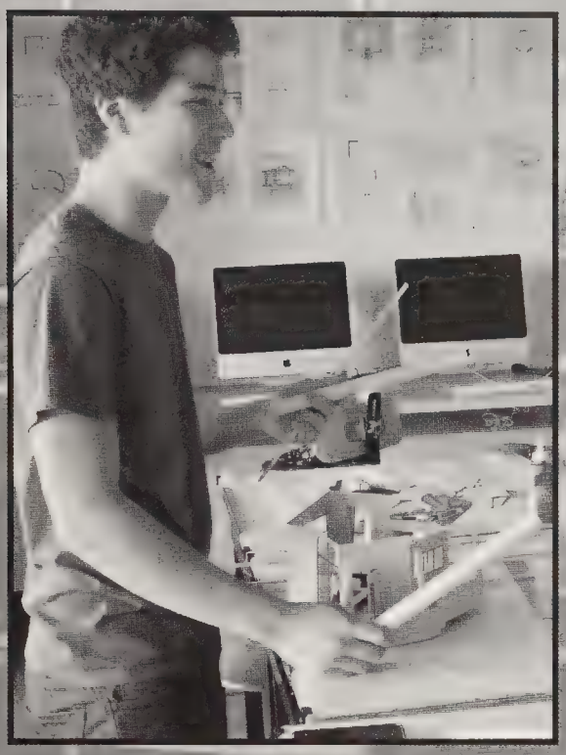
This year, the technical arts courses offered included Electronics, Glass, Jewelry, Metal Fabrications, Sustainable Energy, and Wood. Each shop provided an opportunity for students to work on their technical skills and develop the "hands" of their "head, heart, and hands."

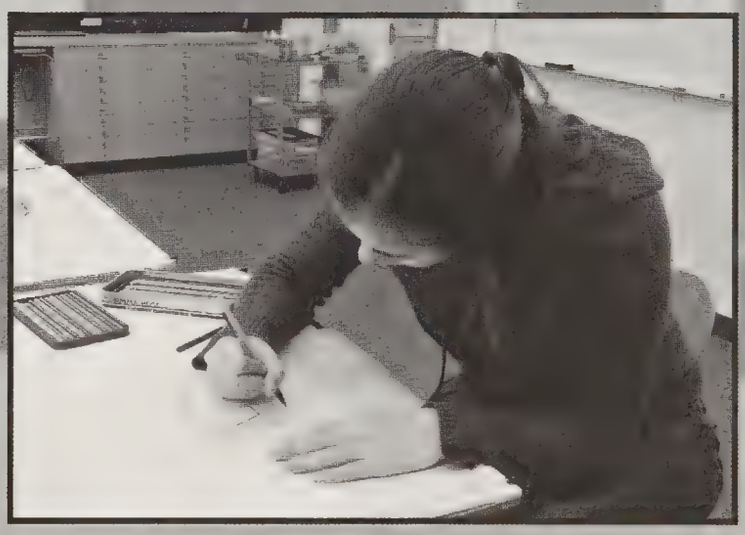


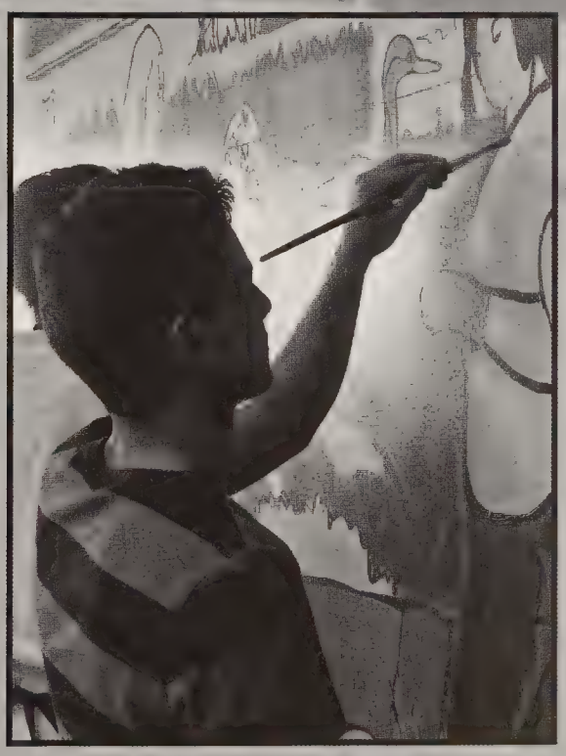


Visual Arts

Visual arts classes at Lick include Architectural Design, Animation, Ceramics, Drawing and Painting, Film, Mixed Media, and Photography. Students in each of these courses (and those who spend their free time working on their art) are highly talented and contribute their skills to the community.







Classrooms: Clubs and Classes

We love clubs. It's more than their off the wall promo videos that draw our attention. Clubs this year have played a big role in student life both on and off campus. From ASIA clubs "Balls for Balls" fundraiser, to Environmental club's elimination of paper cups in our caf, Lick clubs are active and involved. This multitude of activity compounded with the equally enthusiastic work of our Community Networkers Oliver and Joelle lead to the establishment of the second annual club fair. Zany, spontaneous, stimulating; Lick's 30 plus student lead groups have provided us with many a Kodak moment.

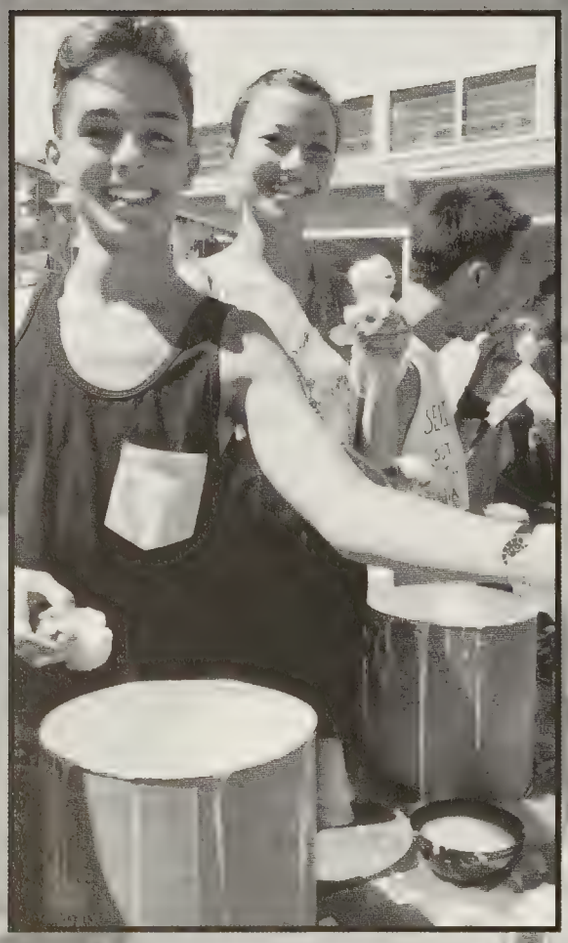
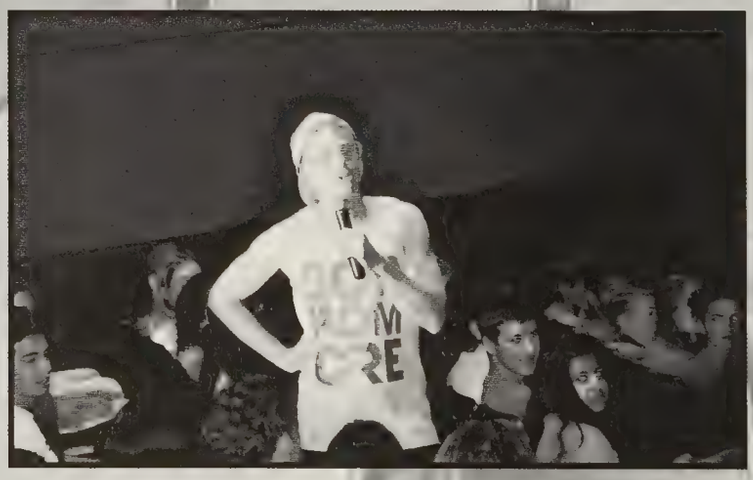
The Theater: Performing Arts

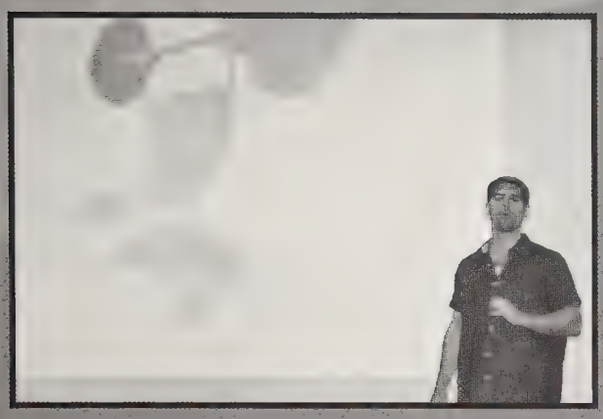
"All the world's a stage" and this year it seems like our stage is covering all of the world. From transporting us to "Almost Maine" and then to the Charenton Asylum of France in "Marat Sade," Lick thespians have expanded our boundaries and introduced us to life beyond the (organic) nutshell that is the Bay Area. And location isn't the only area in which we are developing. This year "The Annual One Act Festival" celebrated its 25th year on the Lick-Wilmerding stage. It's unclear whether or not this the festival's quarter century anniversary had anything to do with the massive turn out of attendees. School history was made this year when the Friday night show completely sold out. Students crowded in aisles, and piled on top of one another to catch the performances of their peers. Many of the patrons had to be turned away, but returned on Saturday for the finale performances.

First Day of School

Every year, the first day back to school is the day when students reunite with all of their peers and educators and are able to remember how much they appreciate and enjoy being a part of the wonderful community present at Lick-Wilmerding. This year, the first day back featured an introduction to the year by our head Mr. Eric Temple, free ice cream from student council, and a new twist on Coach Eliot Smith's annual performance.

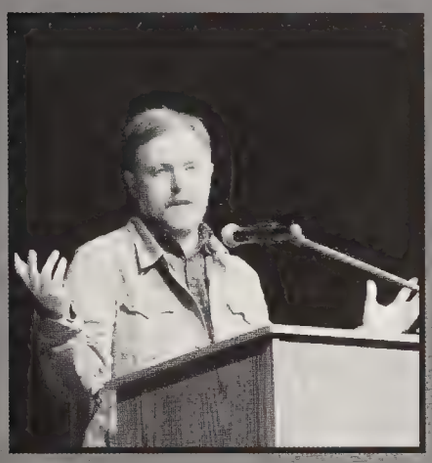






Assemblies

Assemblies provide a time for students to showcase their many talents and for the Lick community to have the opportunity to learn from outside speakers and guests. This year, we were lucky to have a variety of performers, including well-known anti-racism activist Tim Wise, Project VOICE's Sarah and Phil Kay(e), and the St. Valentinez's keyboardist Jackson Clawson.



Fall Play

Almost, Maine

"On a cold, clear, moonless night in the middle of winter, all is not quite what it seems in the remote, mythical town of Almost, Maine. As the northern lights hover in the star-filled sky above, Almost's residents find themselves falling in and out of love in unexpected and often hilarious ways. Knees are bruised. Hearts are broken. But the bruises heal, and the hearts mend—almost—in this delightful midwinter night's dream."

""Almost, Maine," beckoned me onto a snowy and romantic journey replete with subtly supernatural occurrences, zen acting authenticity exercises, and several passionate kisses. After some of the garrulous roles of my first few years, the intense method acting that my fellow thespians and myself mastered over the course of the production changed me deeply as a person. The performances that emerged from the kiln of our souls glowed with a polished truth that I hope audiences could appreciate. An experience I will not soon forget."

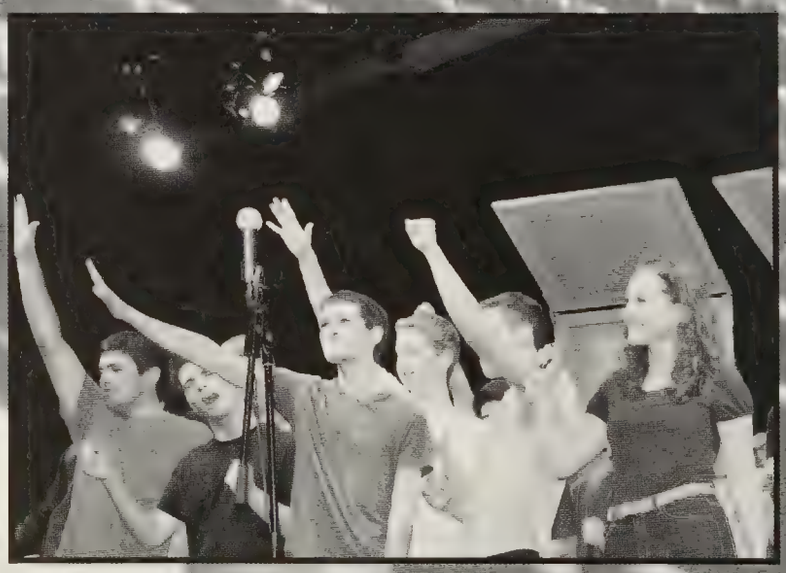
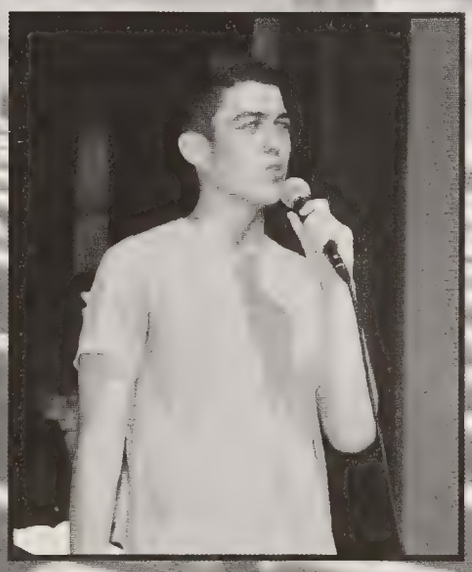
25th Annual
One Acts Festival

Chorus

The Vocal Music Program is made up of three courses: Men's Chorus, Vocal Ensemble, and Women's Chorus. The choruses performed all kinds of music, from Mozart's Reqiuem to fully choreographed pop songs. The choruses had an exciting year of performances! In the fall semester we performed for the California Pacific Medical Center annual gala, and in the spring semester we collaborated with Urban High School for a day retreat and a joint off-campus concert. The highlight of the year was singing the Star-Spangled Banner at AT&T Park for the San Francisco Giants.

-William Sauerland





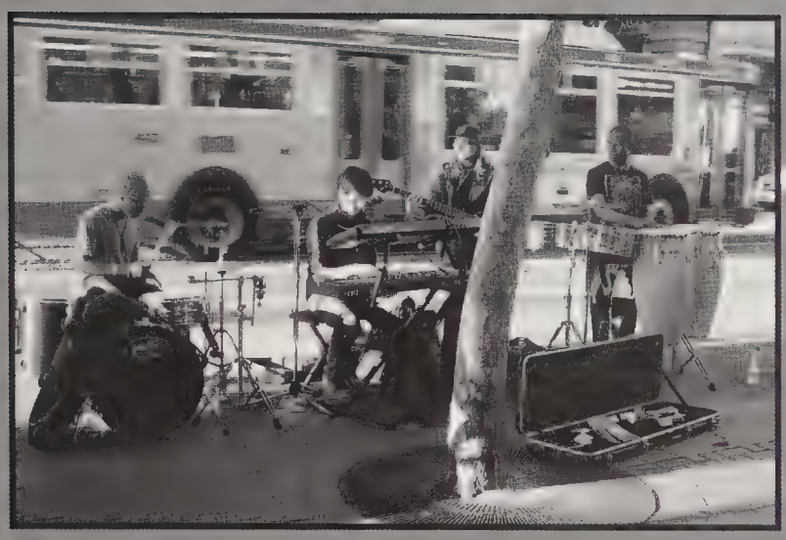
INSTRUMENTAL

"Chamber Orchestra is an eclectic mix of orchestral musicians who perform classical and modern, film scores & chamber music. 21st Century Ensemble is a large ensemble of focused on jazz and popular musical styles in big band and combo formats and is a go - to place for many new Lick students. Introduction to Instrumental Music is a great place to hone you skills on a new instrument and is a first this year at Lick! Advanced Jazz Ensemble puts together combos to play different genres of contemporary music from jazz, funk and rock to pop and everything in between."

-Marty Stoddard

Student Bands

Formed in 2011 by juniors Tano Brock and Jack Gorlin, the band Space Among Many, is one of several well-known Lick student bands. This year, they have also featured their classmates Evan Chan, Glenna Roberts, and Alejandro Santana in some of their songs. The band not only performs covers, but also writes and performs their own music and produces their own YouTube videos!

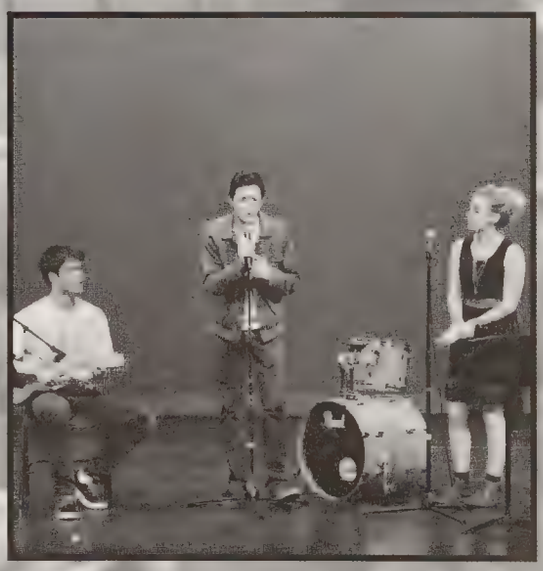


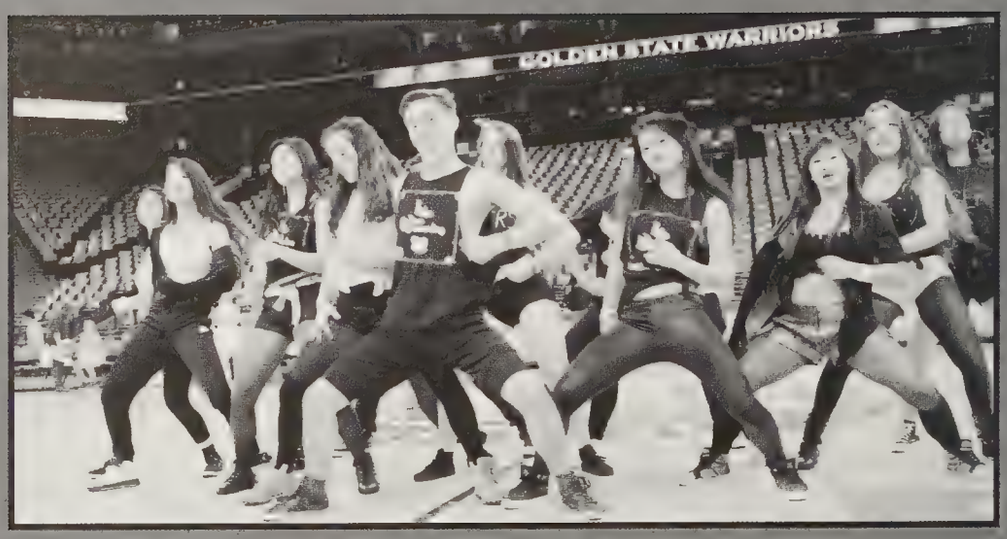
The St. Valentinez

Despite the young age of the St. Valentinez, the band prides itself on blending the old and the new, describing their genre as somewhere from funk/gospel to hip-hop/ R&B. Hailing from 8 Bay Area schools and represented at Lick by Jackson Clawson '13, the 9-piece band is a mix of cultures brought together by their unique sound. The St. Valentinez have performed at venues such as The Great American Music Hall, Yoshi's Oakland, Bottom of the Hill, The DNA Lounge, The Laurel Street Fair, Angelica's Bistro, and Zellerbach Hall. They perform frequently and have developed a prominent and devoted following, particularly in the San Francisco area. After releasing a self-promoted R&B/Funk EP, "When The Saints" last year, the band plans to release a label-backed album later this year.

Four Day Folk

Eliane, Rand, and Will live on the corner of Procra St. in Ation, a small village whose residents are immersed in the practice of blissful "what's the worst that could happen" spontaneity. Together they blend sweet harmonies on a backdrop of ukulele and violin to create honey smooth covers of folk songs. It's magic.





GOLDEN STATE WARRIORS

Dance

"Lick dance never ends. It is a community where seniors dance alongside a freshmen. It is a family that is bonded not by blood, but by movement.It is our home away from home."

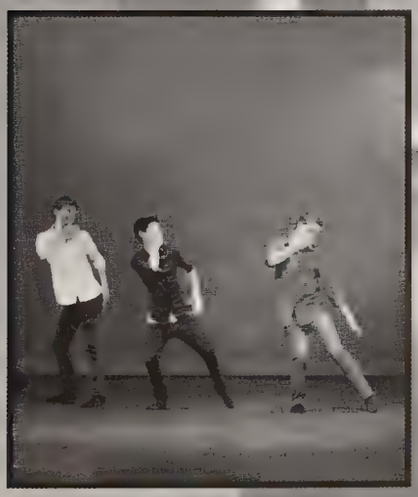
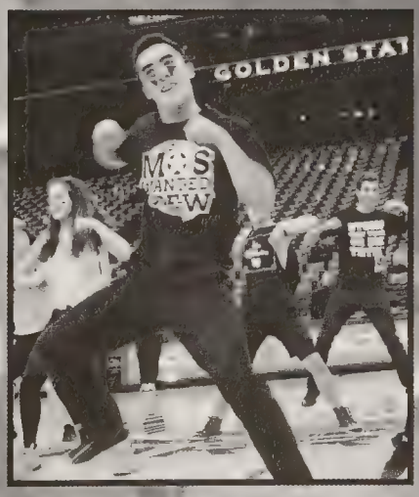
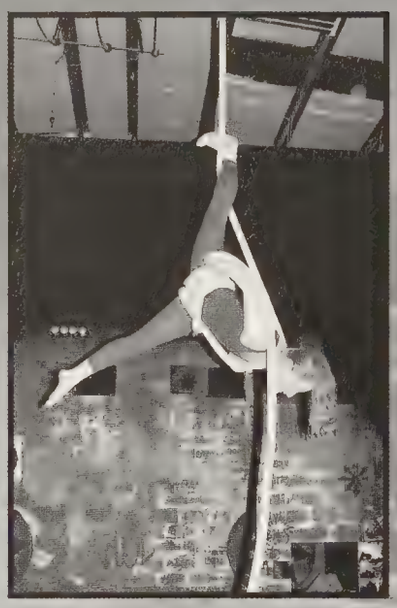
Dance Mama & Papa





Features

Or & Ron Oppenheimer's Circus Arts



Climbing up poles, jumping through hoops, juggling various objects, tumbling through jump ropes, and other amazing gravity defying acts. The feeling of accomplishment when your bruises start showing from straps, or when you mark the rope with your blood. The feeling of exhilaration as you let go to do a drop. The fear of a metal hoop falling on your face. Stacking people in various ways. Chasing juggling balls as they roll away. Constantly trying to break the laws of physics. These are the tribulations that Or and Ron endure in the circus, but that's what makes it worth the effort.

Michael Rauchwerger's Gymnastics

Michael Rauchwerger is a competitive gymnast and has been competing for the last 10 years for the American Gymnastics Club in San Francisco. He has placed first in numerous competitions, including State and Regional Championships. This year he tried out for the Maccabiah Games, which is the third largest international competition after the Olympics and PanAm Games, and will be held in Israel next summer. He placed first at the trials and earned his spot to represent Team USA at the games in Israel this summer. He trains 20 hours a week year round in hopes of joining a college gymnastics team and eventually competing in the World Championships.

Change.org

Jonathan Chernoguz, Eliane Holmlund, Caylyn Creager, Rachel Brodwin and Ben Schneider '13 wrote a petition lobbying the California Board of Education to include the history of eugenics and sterilization in public high school history curricula statewide. Working after school and outside of class, they researched the 2011 passage of California's FAIR (Fair, Accurate, Inclusive, Respectful) Education Act, which requires that students learn about the contributions of people with disabilities, as well as lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender people in social studies curricula and textbooks, and used the act as background for their own work. It was shocking to them that this aspect of California's history is so casually swept under the rug and not discussed in history classrooms. They encourage everyone to read the petition on change.org.

Free the Children's Trip to Ecuador

Seniors, Leila Roberts and Stephanie Chung fundraised $8,510 to build a Free the Children school in Ecuador and were able to travel there last summer to physically build their school and meet the students who will attend their school.

Senegal Trip

"Twenty students went to Senegal for 3 weeks and built a two room schoolhouse in the rural village of Santhiou Mame Gor. The school was designed by a group of students in architecture class and built by students and villagers. They also spent time improving the village medical clinic and providing basic care, and visited Saint Louis, Dakar, and Mbor." -Jeffrey Allen '13

"By helping to design and build the schoolhouse, I used my private interest in architecture for public good." -Lucien Muir '13

"I had a good time. Worked hard and built stuff. It was hot. Mostly hot." -Jeffrey Allen '13

"The trip transformed my entire outlook on the world." -Thomas Kuei '13

"For the first time, I saw just how irrelevant financial success could be." -Jack Manolius '14

Spain Trip

"In order to develop their understanding of Spanish culture and language, the Spanish department organized a trip to Spain in August of 2012. Led by teachers Laralyn Bergstedt and Georgiana Osipova, over twenty students spent three weeks together in Spain. Students first spent a week in Madrid visiting the Palacio Real, the Reina Sofia MOMA, the Museo del Prado and the Parque de Buen Ratiro, in addition to exploring the restaurant scene. After that, students split up and each stayed with a different host family near Toledo for two weeks before returning to Madrid just in time to see the victory parade to celebrate the Spanish soccer team winning the EuroCup."

-Caroline Doyle '13

"I ate so much paella, I gained five pounds!" -Sofi Chavez '13

"An adventure filled with croquetas, museum tours, and a group of people destined to use the rules as a checklist."

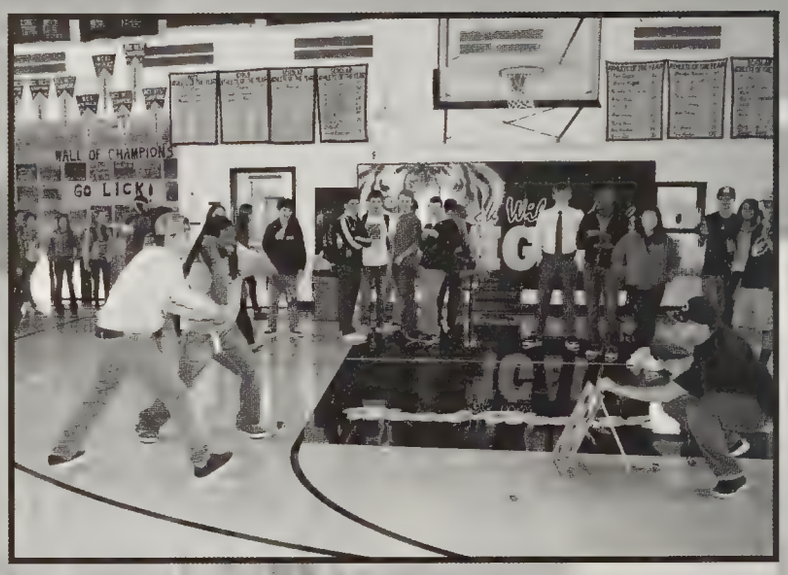
-Selina Wabl '14

"From watching soccer games with my classmates to eating dinner with my host family, every part of Spain was a culturally enriching experience!"

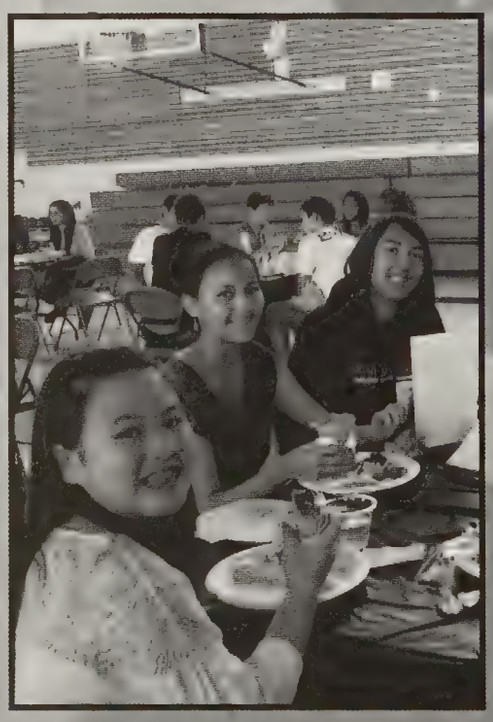
-Rebecca Bekele '13

"I experienced culture with a level of intimacy and understanding I didn't think possible." -Alejandro Santana '14

Peer Connect

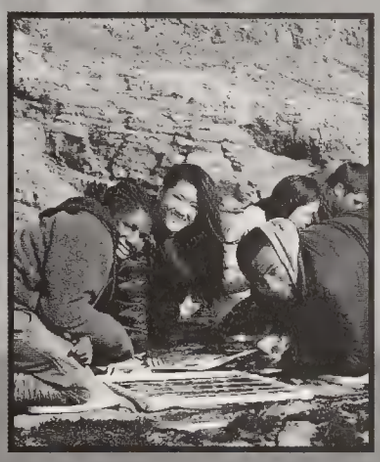


The Peer Mentor Program is designed to help ease the transition to Lick-Wilmerding High School by pairing incoming freshman with juniors and seniors who act as mentors throughout the academic year. These supportive relationships will empower and enlighten incoming students and launch their successful journey at LWHS.

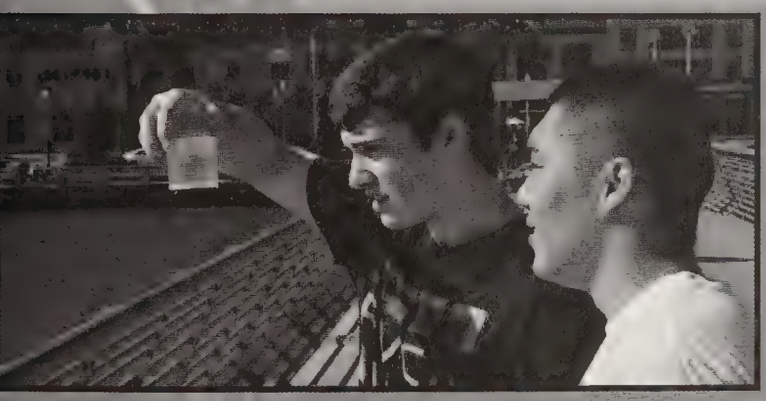


Field Trips

Ms. Greer's sections of CMA took a trip to the SFMOMA.



Students in marine ecology visited Fitzgerald Marine Reserve to explore the tidepools and gather baseline data on the invertebrates and algae in the reserve.



The marine ecology class took a trip to the pier to gather data on phytoplanktn and zooplankton.

Students in the Sustainable Energy class visited Bloom Energy.

Drawing & Painting the Mural field trip to the Mission murals.

The Faculty Lounge: Faculty & Staff

The Faculty and Staff are cornerstones of the Lick Wilmerding community. They can be found in all areas of the school campus. The one place they get to call their own is the Faculty Lounge. Throughout the school day, they can be seen dashing in and out of the space with an armful of copies, a snack, or often-needed extra cup of coffee or tea.

Freshman Hill: Freshmen

Traditionally, Freshman Hill was the most common place for freshmen to spend their time, as it was a seating space reserved exclusively for the youngest class at Lick. Many of the events that the freshmen experience are physically located at other places on or off-campus, but all stem from the same grassy hill.

"Looking back on our first year of high school, it's surprising how fast it's gone by. We all came to Lick not knowing what to expect. We've made great new friends that we will keep even after our days at Lick are over. We've played the sports we love and tried some new ones. Roracle was so exciting and unforgettable. We've seen dramatic, sorrowful, comical plays that can only be found at the annual one acts. The dance concerts were spectacular and memorable. We've even survived the dreaded Freshman initiation process brought upon us by every other grade on campus. Freshman year has definitely been great. After one year we already have a strong sense of community. Our diverse background has inspired us to meet new people with so many differences, yet so many similarities. Our first year at Lick flew by, but we are ready to be Sophomores. Go Tiger class of 2016!"

The Lower Hallway: Sophomores

Sophomores dominate the lower hallway. They are often defined by what they are not.

"Sophomore year has been a thrill for the class of 2015. We have grown collectively, not just as a class, but as true friends since we met freshmen year. The close relationships we have established has got us through this year with laughter, joy, and fun. Our representation at school events has been outstanding, and we have definitely exemplified the meaning of friendship and spirit. We all agree that our time here is limited and that our high school experience is quickly disappearing. We have continued to make the best out of the moments we share together, inside and outside of Lick. We hope to make the next two years count and make them the best years of our lives. Junior year is right around the corner, and our levels of academic stress will inevitably be harder. Although more challenges are to come, the teamwork and love of our class will be the ultimate weapon in persevering through it. We're tough. We're hungry. We're sexy. We are a team. We are making h15tory."

Juniors

"Got Sleep? No? It's ok. Juniors don't either. We juniors dominate LWHS athletics, playing every sport Lick has to offer. The class of 2014 claimed varsity spots on nearly every sports team since we were freshmen back in 2010. We've repped our black and gold with feisty feline pride at oracle and trumped the Uni kids in their own half time show. The class of 2014 participated in just about every activity from claiming lead roles in Lick productions to directing one acts, working themselves to pieces in both the winter and spring play and dance concerts. The juniors have spent their year writing history papers, reading never-ending English books, and spending all their free time doing SAT preparation. We will savor the crazy, and with the beginning of the college process already underway, we feel time speeding by. These are the people, who amidst the long hours of work, the sleep deprivation, and all the highs and lows this year has brought us, that make being a junior worthwhile. This is the Class of 2014."

"We were warned: in 2012 "the Mayans [were] coming" – life as we know it would come to a booming halt. It didn't. Thus, Lick was left with the ever-so-flawless class of 2013. This year's seniors have certainly left a legacy, from the Rage Cage to Redefining Education's "wall of shame," exhibiting impressive diversity in thought, interests, and future destinies.

Best of luck, 2013!"

The Last Word

Dear Lick-Wilmerding,

Our school is comprised of many spaces, each of which has different meanings to different people. The nook, the senior section, the fishbowl, the library- every student has a space spend their time in and will associate many of their memories at Lick with. Every important event needs a location in which to happen, and all the events related to Lick happen in important places too. Each space around the school has its own distinct character and attracts a certain type of people, and together all of these spaces make up the school. We've made this book in order to commemorate each one of these spaces, and have divided up the book by where each thing happened, rather than any more traditional approach to layout. The cover, as the door to the yearbook, is also the door to the school and all of the memories we associate with it: It opens up onto all of the wonderful spaces that Lick contains.

We've also elected to continue to keep the book in black and white, unlike almost all other schools in this day and age. We feel that it maintains the classic style of Lick yearbooks while still pushing forward with a just little hint of theme.

The yearbook is meant to commemorate all of the things that have happened to you at Lick over the past year. We've worked through endless hours day and night to bring you the best product we could- we hope it was worth it!

As usual, infinite thanks to our wonderful, dedicated yearbook advisor Mr. King.

Much love,
Your Editors
Caroline Doyle '13 and Stephanie Chung '13
P.S. No space was given to this page because we are everywhere, we enjoy our omnipresence.
